I'm a clinical and experimental psychologist with an extensive track record in statistical modelling and scientific software development using Python (e.g., NumPy, Pandas, SciPy, scikit-learn), R, and Git. My work lies at the interface between science and clinical practice, bridging design and management of scientific projects with the application of clincal interventions in the field. I'm also an active member of the open source community and an advocate of open, reproducible, and robust scientific practices.
